

Long version:

Katie Wardrobe, Midnight Music

Katie Wardrobe is a Melbourne-based music technology trainer and consultant with a passion for helping music teachers through her business Midnight Music (www.midnightmusic.com.au). She runs hands-on professional development workshops throughout Australia and a popular series of online courses. Her workshops and courses focus on incorporating technology into the music curriculum through a range of creative projects.

Katie is a qualified teacher and has worked in a variety of music and education-related workplaces, including Sibelius Australia and Orchestra Victoria. She has also worked as a freelance copyist, music arranger and transcriber for more than 20 years.

In 2011 she released an ebook for users of open-source software program MuseScore, titled MuseScore: The Essential Beginner's Guide and in 2012 she authored a keyboard and music technology program for middle school students titled Studio Sessions (published by MusicEDU). Katie has had articles published by magazines such as Music In Action and Education Technology Solutions.

In 2011, 2013 and 2014 Katie worked as the Project Manager of the Soundhouse Music Alliance's bi-annual Music Technology in Education Conference and she has presented at more than 40 other music and education-related conferences and events. She is also fast-becoming known as an expert in the practical integration of iPads in music education and published iPad Projects for the Music Classroom (an ebook with accompanying videos) in 2014.

Short version

Katie Wardrobe, Midnight Music

Katie Wardrobe is a music technology trainer and consultant with a passion for helping music teachers through her business Midnight Music (www.midnightmusic.com.au). She runs hands-on professional development workshops throughout Australia and internationally, and a popular series of online courses. Her workshops and courses focus on incorporating technology into the music curriculum through a range of creative projects. Katie has been the keynote speaker at the Australian Society for Music Education National Conference and the Music Education New Zealand National Conference.

Katie is the author of the keyboard and technology program for middle school students titled Studio Sessions (published by MusicEDU). She is also known as an expert in the practical integration of iPads in music education and in 2014 published iPad Projects for the Music Classroom - a collection of step-by-step creative projects for primary and middle-school students. In 2016, Katie launched the Midnight Music Community - an online professional development learning space especially for music teachers using technology.

Mini version

Katie Wardrobe is a music technology trainer and consultant who is passionate about helping music teachers through her business Midnight Music (www.midnightmusic.com.au). She runs hands-on workshops, presents regularly at conferences and offers online training and support to music teachers all over the world through her music technology professional development community for music teachers - the Midnight Music Community.